NEW-YORK CARD PRESS.—This new and superior article is offered to the public as combining more advantages than any other article in the market. Some of the advantages are, that it is portable and cavily conveyed from place to place. It may be worked by one person, either by hand or treadle, and with very little labor. It will turn out work as quick and good as any other press, and as the number of its parts are few it is less liable to get out of order. Those who have used the Press as well as other versons acquainted with Presses, procounce it the best and chenjest that has yet been produced. Persons desirous of procuring the article can obtain them at St. John-street, between William and Gold-streets. DREPARED CAST STEEL SPOONS

The public are now presented with an article far superior to any thing of the kind ever before manufactured in this or any other country—those of pure silver only excepted. They will neither rust, tarnish nor lose their brightness though kept in constant use.
